LOCAL NOBODY

Bold graphic apparel, printed by hand — built stitch by stitch in Phoenix since 2021 by artist Joshua Scott.

01 — THE BRAND

MADE BY HAND.

Local Nobody is an independent streetwear label — bold graphic tees and prints, designed and screen-printed in-house by founder and artist Joshua Scott. Every piece runs through the studio: from the screen, to the press, to the box. No middlemen, no mass production — just a point of view and the work to back it.

A Phoenix transplant out of New Mexico with ties up and down the West Coast, Joshua Scott has been building Local Nobody stitch by stitch since 2021 — every drop designed, printed, and shipped from the studio.

THE DROP.

MORE THAN MERCH.

Joshua Scott is a maker across mediums. Beyond the apparel, he makes music — the single and video "Hungry" (directed & produced by Tony Gambino) is streaming everywhere — and builds content straight out of the studio.

Same hands, same grit: from the screen to the mic, everything Local Nobody is made in-house.
